The Tauri Group Recognized as One of the 50 Fastest Growing Small Businesses in the Government Market by Washington Technology

Alexandria, Virginia – September 2, 2009 – The Tauri Group, LLC, an innovator in analytic consulting for homeland security, defense, and space clients, was named to Washington Technology's Fast 50 list of the fastest growing small businesses in the government market. Washington Technology recognized The Tauri Group as one of its Fast 50 based on The Tauri Group's compound annual revenue growth rate from 2004 through 2008.

Founded in 2001 by managing partners Carissa Bryce Christensen, Cosmo DiMaggio III, and Mark V. Herzing, The Tauri Group has seen earnings skyrocket from $1 million in annual revenue generated in its first year to about $40 million in 2008.

The Tauri Group debuted on this year's Washington Technology's Fast 50 list at #32. The Fast 50 lists the most successful small businesses in the government market, based on each firm's compound annual growth rate (CAGR) over a four-year period. The Tauri Group experienced a CAGR growth rate of close to 85 percent.

"The Tauri Group is proud to be recognized as one of Washington Technology's 50 fastest growing small businesses. Our success is a testament to the quality of our employees and their commitment to helping clients meet their toughest challenges," said Ms. Christensen.

The Tauri Group supports federal government clients including the Department of Homeland Security, the Defense Threat Reduction Agency, and NASA.
