FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Tauri Group Recognized by DHS for Outstanding Contractor Support

Company honored at U.S. Department of Homeland Security Science and Technology Directorate 2005 Under Secretary Award Ceremony on December 7

Alexandria, Virginia, December 9, 2005 – The Tauri Group, an innovator in analytical consulting, today announced that it was selected as a recipient of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security Science and Technology Directorate 2005 Under Secretary's Award for Outstanding Contractor Support for its work on the DHS BioWatch Program. BioWatch is an early warning system designed to detect the intentional release of select aerosolized biological agents.

In a congratulatory letter, Dr. Charles McQueary, Undersecretary for Science and Technology, noted that the award is in "recognition of outstanding technical and administrative support."

"We, along with our team members, LMI and SRS Technologies, are thrilled to receive this honor from Dr. McQueary," stated Mr. Cos DiMaggio, managing partner of The Tauri Group.

The BioWatch team was acknowledged at an official awards ceremony hosted by Dr. McQueary at the U.S. Department of Homeland Security headquarters in Washington, DC, on December 7, 2005. In particular, the contributions of Mr. Ray Gordon, the BioWatch Systems Engineering Technical Assistance Program Manager for The Tauri Group, were recognized.

"We are very pleased that Mr. Gordon was distinguished for his exceptional effort. At The Tauri Group, our mission is to attract people who are dedicated, love their work and strive for client satisfaction. This award tells me that we are meeting that goal," said Tauri Group managing partner and CFO Mr. Mark Herzing.
